PERSONNEL

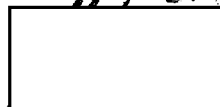

Thank you for your kind words and best wishes. With a 110 mile commute facing you each day, I can understand why you are looking for a job closer to home. I sent your resume to Danny May, my Director of Data Processing, for his review. He was very impressed with the work you are currently doing and the depth of your background as a manager. He would like to put you to work in his office but, unfortunately, neither he nor his deputy is ready to retire.

Seriously, all the senior positions that would challenge you and provide you with an opportunity to make a contribution to CIA's mission are currently filled. However, I have taken the liberty of sending your papers to my Director of Personnel to keep on file. If the picture here changes in the near future, I will let you know.

Again, thank you for your interest in my new job and CIA.

Sincerely,

Don L. Wortman
Deputy Director
for Administration
